The IPRS Difference

IPRS, established in 1970 as a non-profit organisation, is the only accrediting body for Public Relations (PR) practitioners in Singapore. The Institute's objective is to establish growth for Singapore's PR industry through knowledge acquisitions, networking, and exchanging of new ideas. The Institute strives to be the leading regional PR organisation to elevate the profession, set industry standards and increase public recognition of this profession.

Our focus is on providing a solid foundation of conceptual knowledge and ground expertise for PR practitioners who wish to upgrade their skills, and for those aspiring to join the communications industry. The Institute promotes excellence in the industry through education, tailored programmes and courses that are aligned with the many changes and developments in the practice of PR and Communications.

Whether you are a practitioner wishing to upgrade your skills or someone who wishes to join the communications industry, IPRS offers courses and workshops that are fresh, positive, practical and skills-oriented. All delivered by IPRS Members and trainers who are leading experts in their field.
